Massey Ferguson DL95 Loader to Skid Steer Adapter

Worksaver, Inc. now offers an adapter that converts the Massey Ferguson DL95 loaders' pin-on system to the Skid Steer interface. Using existing loader pins this adapter pins to the loader arms allowing the operator to use skid steer type attachments. This adapter provides greater versatility to the operators' choice of attachments. Built to the "universal" skid steer standard and using plated handles, pins, springs and bushings this adapter will provide many years of service.
